2007 NOTEBOOK

- The Retrievers posted their ninth winning season in 10 years. Under Head Coach Pete Caringi, UMBC has never had back-to-back losing seasons and has registered only two sub-.500 campaigns.
- The Retrievers were 3-0-1 vs. America East competition at home last season and are 14-2-5 in five years of league play.
- UMBC was 7-0-1 last season when scoring the game's first goal. The three scoreless ties that the Retrievers played (St. Francis-N.Y., James Madison, Vermont) are the most they have recorded in a Division I season.
- UMBC scored the same number of goals (26) as they did in 2006, but allowed just 15, compared with 30 permitted in '06. Nationally, UMBC finished the campaign tied for 19th in shutout percentage (10 in 20 games), 22nd in save percentage (.835) and 21st in goals against average (0.71).

2008 MEN'S SOCCER

Since its modest beginning as a men's basketball-only conference in 1979, America East has evolved into one of the most comprehensive NCAA Division I conferences with a commitment to broad-based, competitive athletics programs, complementing the academic integrity and missions of the member institutions.

Each of the nine institutions - University at Albany, Binghamton University, Boston University, University of Hartford, University of Maine, University of Maryland Baltimore County (UMBC), University of New Hampshire, Stony Brook University, and University of Vermont - offers a unique blend of academic and athletic tradition.

Progressive in its approach to its more than 3,200 student-athletes, America East recognizes champions in each of its 21 sports. America East also conducts the nation's most comprehensive academic recognition program for student-athletes.

With a geographic footprint covering the Mid-Atlantic to Northeast regions of the United States, America East has a population base of more than 50 million people and nearly 30 million television homes. America East member institutions include more than 1,060,000 students on the nine campuses and boast nearly one million living alumni.

LEAGUE HISTORY...

To see how far America East has progressed, consider the conference was established in 1979 as the ECAC North. The conference at that time consisted of 10 institutions and sponsored league competition only in men's basketball, with the champion receiving an automatic bid to the NCAA Championship.

Men's basketball remained the lone league sport until the 1988-89 academic year. At that time, the conference's Board of Directors made a new commitment to an all-sports association, creating the North Atlantic Conference by establishing an office, hiring a full-time commissioner, and embarking on a building program.

The North Atlantic Conference merged with the Seaboard Conference (the league in which Boston University, Hartford, Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont, among others, competed in women's basketball) in 1989 and the NAC looked to establish conference championships in several men's and women's sports.

The conference changed its name to America East prior to the 1996-97 academic year and moved the conference headquarters to its downtown Boston in 1997.

In 2005, America East hired Patrick Nero, most recently the Director of Athletics at Maine, as the conference's third commissioner.

The conference office moved its headquarters to Cambridge, Mass. in July, 2007.

ATHLETIC SUCCESS...

America East enters its 21st year of all-sports championship competition on the heels of one of the most successful seasons in history as five of its 10 team sport champions won at least one game in the NCAA Championship and two other teams received at-large tournament bids. In addition, one student-athlete won a national championship and 20 others garnered All-America recognition.

America East sent multiple teams to the NCAA Women's Lacrosse Championship for the first time since 2000 as league champion Boston University and runner-up New Hampshire each received bids.

Hartford defeated Syracuse in the first round of the NCAA Women's Basketball Championship. It marked the second time in three years the Hawks had won a game in the NCAA Tournament.

America East is only one of four Non-Football Bowl Sub-division Conferences to have received multiple postseason bids in each of the past four years.

Vermont and Boston University each earned berths in the NCAA Men's Soccer Championship. It marked the first time since 1996 that America East received multiple bids. Vermont downed Dartmouth in the first round to give America East at least one win in the NCAAs in six of the last seven years. America East finished the season ninth out of 22 Division I conferences in the Ratings Percentage Index (RPI).

UMBC won its first-ever America East Men's Basketball Championship and recorded a program-best 24 victories.

UMBC overcame a nine-goal deficit to upend Albany, 14-13, in the finals of the America East Men's Lacrosse Championship. The Retrievers, which won a school-record 12 games, were edged by national semifinalist Virginia, 10-9, in the first round of the NCAA Championship. UMBC finished the season ranked No. 6 in the USILA poll. Albany and Stony Brook were also ranked at one point during the season. Five America East standouts were chosen All-Americans by the USILA with UMBC's Terry Kimener receiving second-team recognition.

Boston University defeated New Hampshire, 2-1, to claim its second America East Women's Soccer title in three years and its third straight NCAA berth. The Terriers advanced to the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Field Hockey Championship with a 1-0 win over Iowa in the first round.

Albany defeated Cleveland State, 3-0, in the NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship to become the first America East team to win a match in the tournament. Binghamton's Rory Quiller became the second national champion in America East history when he won the pole vault at the NCAA Indoor Track & Field Championship with a height of 18-0 1/2.

Stony Brook competed at the NCAA Women's Cross Country Championship for the first time after placing second at the NCAA Northeast Regional.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS...

America East institutions boasted a pair of Academic All-Americans in 2007-08 while another 19 were tabbed All-District selections.

A total of 18 America East teams received Public Recognition Awards by the NCAA under the Division I Academic Progress Rate (APR). The APR provides a real-time snapshot of a team's academic success and the academic progress of student-athletes.

More than 2,250 of America East's 3,200 student-athletes were named to the Academic Honor Roll after receiving grade-point averages of 3.0 or better. Included in that total were 1,015 student-athletes who earned a 3.5 or better and were named to the Commissioner's Honor Roll.

Overall, America East student-athletes compiled a 3.02 GPA during the 2007-08 academic year.

COMMISSIONER'S CUP...

Boston University took home the Stuart P. Haskell, Jr. Commissioner's Cup for the third straight year and sixth time in the last seven years. The conference award annually recognizes the highest scoring athletic program in America East as determined by a points system, which rewards a school for success both during the regular season and at championship competition in the league's sports.

AMERICA EAST IN THE PROS...

Several America East athletes have extended their playing careers beyond the collegiate level.

Former two-time America East Players of the Year Craig Claxton, of the Atlanta Hawks, Malik Rose, of the New York Knicks and three-time all-conference selection, Jose Juan Barea, of the Dallas Mavericks, continue to make their impact in the NBA today. Former Hartford star Vin Baker and three-time America East Player of the Year

Reggie Lewis, who captained the Boston Celtics at the time of his premature death, made five combined All-Star appearances during their careers.

America East has also been well-represented in the WNBA as current Hartford head coach Jennifer Rizzotti and former America East Players of the Year Cindy Blodgett (Maine), Jamie Cassidy (Maine) and Katasha Artis have played in the top women's professional league.

Former Hartford baseball star Jeff Bagwell, the 2004 National League Most Valuable Player, hit 449 career home runs in 15 seasons for the Houston Astros. Joe Nathan, who played at Stony Brook, has been selected to three All-Star games in five seasons as the closer for the Minnesota Twins. Carlos Pena slugged 46 home runs and drove in 121 runs to earn Comeback Player of the Year honors with the Tampa Bay Rays in 2007.

America East also has a number of former men's lacrosse players and men's and women's soccer players in various professional leagues. Three former men's lacrosse standouts were named to the 2008 Major League Lacrosse All-Star team: Mike Gabel (Vermont '05), Brendan Mundorf (UMBC '06) and Merrick Thompson (Albany '07). Mundorf, a two-time America Player of the Year, led MLL's Denver Outlaws with 47 points last season. UMBC's Terry Kimener, the 2008 America East Player of the Year, was chosen 8th overall in the MLL Draft, while Albany's Jordan Levine was selected 10th overall. Drew Westervelt, a three-time America East all-conference performer for the Retrievers, ranked third among Outlaws with 34 points in his rookie season. Bouna Coundoul, a two-time America East Goalkeeper of the Year in men's soccer, is the starting goalkeeper for Major League Soccer's Colorado Rapids and ranks among league leaders in goals against average and shutouts.

Hartford's Jerry Kelly, who has two career PGA Tour victories and 66 Top 10 finishes, joined the tour in 1996 after turning professional in 1989. Kelly, who has earned over $17 million during his career, is joined by former Hawk golfers Tim Petrovic and Patrick Sheehan on the PGA Tour.
